

Information for Students Interested in Pursuing a CPA Accounting Professional Licensure - Spring 2024

Students enrolling in the University's accounting program should be aware of the following requirements for CPA licensure. For more information, please contact the CPA advisor at (u)-2-AMCID 2 BDC /TT1 1 Tf aBDC amAMCt2AM2s ac educational requirements to be eligible for the CPA in other states.

Graduate Students: If you have earned you undergraduate degree at the University of Scranton and complete your Masters of Accountancy at the University you will fulfill the education requirements necessary to sit for the CPA exam in the states listed above. The University has not yet determined whether the MACC program meets educational requirements for the CPA in other states.

For more information, contact the University's Accounting Department.